

Concept Phase for Ambassador John L. Loeb
Jr. Visitor Center at Touro Synagogue for a visitor experience related to the historic experiment of religious freedom in Newport, RI.

For happily the Government of which gives to bigotry no sanct assistance requires only that th protection should demean their citizens, in giving it on all occa

It would be inconsistent with th character not to avow that I am favorable opinion of my admini wishes for my felicity. May the of Abraham, who dwell in this li and enjoy the good will of the g while every one shall sit in safe and figtree, and there shall be afraid. May the father of all mer not darkness in our paths, and several vocations useful here, & way everlastingly happy.

the good will of the other Inhabitants shall sit in safety under his own and figtree, and there shall be none to make the father of all mercies scatter in our paths, and make vocations, here, and in his everlastingly happy.
G. Washington

The story to be told is many layered. A composite of details, one layered in front of the next form a single picture. Each layer tells of one aspect of the history of the Synagogue. Each layer is transparent. Each layer is different. Each layer allows one to see through to the next and the next until the whole story is told. The story is told with light that shines through picture in front of picture in front of words in front of light.

Exhibition Circulation Plan